

Standing Camp Packing List

Uniform (shirt & scarf) to wear to and from camp.

Change of clothes per day including underwear and socks (uniform is backup clothing).

Shorts are useful during the day if hot, long pants are useful at night if cold ☺

Jumper.

Rain coat.

Hat - brimmed.

Beany (in cold weather)

Sleeping bag

Sleeping gear - something comfortable or wear the next day's clean change of clothes.

Sleeping mat - optional for the lighter scout, useful in the cold or wet. Foam mat or hiking style blow up mattress, some use a blanket. We do not use stretchers.

Blanket - optional, useful if cold weather expected or if sleeping bag is not warm enough

Pillow - optional, camping pillow or small cushion are preferred to a full size pillow.

Toiletries (toothbrush, comb, soap)

Towel - can be a hand towel size, or full size

Dilly bag - preferably a cloth bag, containing cup, bowl, plate, knife, fork, spoon, and tea towel

Torch - head torch or small hand torch

Plastic bags for dirty clothes, and water protection.

Swimming costume, sun shirt, sun screen. Apart from swimming, all water activities (such as canoeing) require shoes which can get wet. Croc style shoes are OK.